image What is he about? The World-famous Global-Citizen is on a mission - to know ALL the ancient powers that lie buried in the earth. The search for such powers seems to be a mad puzzle that will leave him either with a bone to pick or some might say a vertebra to squish. The quest begins on the Caribbean island of Pitimatus, where ancient Mayan ruins overlook the ancient Mayan Mayan temples of Palenque. Seven weeks later in Singapore, Mr.
Prattâ€™s investigations lead him to an equally mysterious being.Â As Mr. Pratt digs deeper, heÂ uncovers a mystical power that has the potential to change the world. Â What if the biggest underreported natural disaster in human history was perpetrated by the perpetrators? An earthquake in the same magnitude of 1923, and where was the media coverage at that time? This hidden document reveals the true story of the devastating nature of the 7.8-9.0 magnitude M7.0-8.3 earthquake in the US that is estimated to have lasted for between 5 minutes and 5 hours, killing an estimated 43,000 people. This is an alternative version of the documentary that will not be screened publicly. This version is subtitled in English and Spanish. What If The Biggest
By The Perpetrators? ' }image 25 Mr. Pratt, a prolific researcher that needs to not be interrupted, must then descend into the depths of the Caribbean ocean and find the buried relics of the Mayans. But his quest is not as simple as it seems. His entry, guarded by a
