"What you see here is FIFA's brand new engine, which is made up of many different key elements, making it the most robust and advanced engine in the entire game," said Marcel Wüst. "The FIFA 22 engine is much deeper and richer than the engine we used in FIFA 15. We now have features like agility and precision options, as well as more advanced collision and animation, which really make FIFA 22 the most technically challenging and realistic simulation that we have ever made."
