The organization has announced that its events will move to the summer months starting this year. PGA of Canada events have previously been held during the fall months as the PGA Tour battles U.S. schools for the richest fields in golf. Starting next season, the PGA of Canada events will begin in the summer, starting with the Open Provincial Championships in St. Catharines, Ont., June 25 to July 3. The Canadian Tour Championships are in Brandon, Man., July 10 to 12. The PGA of Ontario Open is in Thornhill, Ont., Aug. 8 to 11. The winners of the Open Provincial Championships and Canadian Tour Championships will be exempt into the Canadian Tour. "The PGA of Canada has always had a firm desire to provide our players the best experience possible in Canada and through the adoption of this new schedule we can assure them of continued access to our courses and tournaments and provide a better experience for them," said Steve Horvath, president of the PGA of Canada. "Since the inception of the PGA of Canada we have worked closely with the PGA of Canada and PGA of Canada.ca to ensure that our players have access to the best courses in Canada, with enhanced prize fund money, best golf courses to play and superior player experience," said R.J. Howes, chairman and CEO of the PGA of Canada. The PGA of Canada has an annual budget of $1.75 million. The Canadian Tour is a six-event circuit held throughout Canada with prize money of $750,000. Ontario is the top-ranked province on the Canadian Tour.. "I don't know what to tell you, Lou." "I've been about to fire this guy for years." "But now I don't got a choice." "Why don't you give him a try?" "It's like a flash." "A couple of days and he's back on his feet." b7e8fd5c8
